

European NETWORKING and Learning FOR THE Future

The EuroPACE Approach

Fostering collaboration in e-learning.

EuroPACE ivzw is a European non-profit association of universities and their partners in education and training, e.g. private companies, international networks and governmental institutions.

Our main objective is to foster networked e-learning for virtual mobility, for internationalisation of higher education, for knowledge creation and sharing and for lifelong learning.

Our main interests are innovation in education, new educational technologies, quality in e-learning and e-learning competences and skills.

Our target groups are higher education institutions, private companies and policy making bodies.

Our main activities are research and development through projects, networking, expert advice, events and publishing of reports, papers and presentations.

EuroPACE publication: "European Networking and Learning for the Future. The EuroPACE Approach."

This publication collects articles from different authors involved in the development of the EuroPACE network. It positions EuroPACE in the landscape of international networked e-learning. The articles give an overview of the history of the EuroPACE network and the changes that took place in the field of technology enhanced education and training over the past 20 years. At the same time, the book intends to look ahead and to focus on future developments. It draws the outlines for the new EuroPACE and defines the role of the organisation in an ever changing landscape.

"I commend EuroPACE for delivering this book as a means to provide a comprehensive perspective of the state of the art and of future visions for learning."

RICHARD STRAUB, SECRETARY-GENERAL EUROPEAN LEARNING INDUSTRY GROUP - ELIG

"The process of transformation and internationalisation that European universities are undertaking owes much to pioneers such as EuroPACE."

MARUJA GUTIERREZ-DÍAZ, HEAD OF UNIT LIFELONG LEARNING: INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY

"This book illustrates the way how one of these networks, EuroPACE, has been and still is playing an important role in bringing together its member organisations, and how to foster mutual collaboration."
